The Ridge View girls' track and field squad traveled to Storm Lake on Friday, to participate in the Buena Vista University Indoor Meet. The Raptors performance was highlighted by a first place showing by Madison Stowater in the high jump competition. Stowater won the event with a leap of 5 feet 3 inches, best in the field of 14 competitors.

Jaycie Vohs of Ridge View captured third place out of 20 competitors in the 1500 meter run, finishing with a time of 5:29.77.

Madison Stowater won sixth place out of 23 competitors in the 400 meter dash, turning in a time of 1:10.32. In the 200 meter dash, Ridge View's Jayley Endrulat placed 13th with a time of 33.18 seconds.

Addy Tesch captured sixth place out of 21 participants in the 800 meter run, with a time of 2:51.66. Alyssa Biede of Ridge View also competed, turning in a time of 3:00.71.

In the shot put contest, Ridge View juniors Sydney Blackmore and Liz

Schimmer won eighth and ninth place out of 33 participants, with throws of 31 feet 6 inches and 31 feet 3 inches, respectively. Raptors junior Mazee Henningson also competed with a throw of 24 feet.

History Day competition: Chloe Kinney, Gracelyn Thompson, Olivia Feilmeier, Melany Horan, and Harper Cress represented Ridge View Middle School at the National History Day competition at BVU. Their project, "The Walk to Freedom, Iowa's Underground Railroad," qualified to advance to the state competition. Their research and attention to detail are impressive.
