Look Out For Your Neighbors

When our girls were little, we had some wonderful neighbors that took us in as their own. One neighbor -we will call them Jack and Jean — shared produce with us, recipes, stories and their unconditional love. We looked out for one another...especially as they grew older. We took meals to them and spent quality time with them. Another neighbor, we will call him Don. He was a handyman. When Tim was traveling, he would fix small things for me, bring the kids candy and was just a wonderful man. Another neighbor, we will call her Sheryl. Whenever I couldn't find the girls they were in the backyard, playing in her playhouse, playing with turtles or her dog. She always made time for them and never turned them away. She was a saving grace for both our girls. Recently, since we have had such a terrible cold and snowy winter, my wish for everyone, is to look out for your neighbor. Call and check on them. If you see the driveway needs scooped, scoop it. If you have plenty of supper, make them a plate. We recently realized that one of our neighbors had been in the hospital, but not until I called on her. I know with privacy, you can't say anything, but I felt bad knowing that she could have used a visit. I'm not saying you must be all up in their business but let them know that you are there if they need you and they can call you. Let's bring being neighborly back and get to know yours! Thank You, Tracey Armentrout
